

Instructions to Authors

Manuscripts should be submitted by e-mail (docx for the text, xlsx for tables, and jpg, tif, pptx, etc. for the figures) to the Editor, Asian Pacific Journal of Dentistry, H. Matsumura (matsumura.hideo@nihon-u.ac.jp). Submission of a manuscript indicates a tacit understanding that the article is not actively under consideration for publication with another journal. Once a paper is accepted, the authors have transferred the copyright of the article to the Asian Pacific Journal of Dentistry. Authors should provide their full address, including the e-mail address, for correspondence. All submitted articles will be acknowledged upon receipt then sent for review. The manuscript, including an abstract (up to 250 words), keywords (up to six), references, tables, figures and figure captions, should be clearly typed in American English. Legible, compact notation should be used, conforming to current practice. Each page of the manuscript should be numbered sequentially.

The manuscript should include the following:

1. Title page: Title (Subtitle is not allowed.), Name of authors and Professional addresses.
2. Abstract: Should be limited to 250 words and typed double-spaced on a separate page. There should be no abbreviations in the abstract. Abstract section must be structured for all articles except for short communication, clinical, reports and technical articles. It should include the 1) Purpose, 2) Material(s) and Method(s), 3) Result(s), 4) Conclusion(s), and 5) Key Words.
3. The text should include 1) Introduction, 2) Materials and Methods (with trade name, manufacturer, manufacturer's city location, country), 3) Results, 4) Discussion, 5) Acknowledgments, and 6) Conflicts of Interest.
4. Text should be limited to 4,000 words for Original Article and Review, whereas 2,000 words for Short Communication, Case Report, and Technical Article.
5. References should be limited to 40 for Original Article and Review, and 10 for others.
6. Tables and figures should also be numbered in the order in which they are cited in the text. Each table and each figure could be edited in the text without a separate page. Color images should be at least 300 DPI. Gray scale images should be at least 300 DPI. Line art (black and white or color) should be at least 1200 DPI. The cost of color illustrations will be charged to the author.
7. Articles reporting cases require patient or parental consent. Submission of a copy of IRB approval is required for clinical study and animal experiment.
